

Budapest, Amsterdam, Copenhagen
Bells and Whistles Sample Itinerary Built by Travel With Me-Allen B

Bells and Whistles Defined: All hotels are in the middle of (Steps too) most of your activities. I have included a couple of amazing tours beyond what you listed, but along with your chosen activities.

Train Challenges: The longer routes from Budapest to Amsterdam and Copenhagen back to Budapest pose some challenges.

The trip from Budapest to Amsterdam is extremely long (22 hours). Only a train departing at 6am allows you to arrive in Amsterdam the same day. Afternoon trains arrive next day with multiple stops with changes in the middle of the night.

The trip from Copenhagen to Budapest is also very long and would cause you to arrive too late to safely get to the airport for your return flight.

The train from Budapest to Neuberg and Amsterdam to Copenhagen will work.
